GRACE W. SLICK,
~~nee Grace Barnett Wing~~

On April 24, 1970, Mrs. Grace W. Slick, one of 350 alumnae of Finch College invited to a ladies tea at the White House on that date, attempted to bring as her guest Abbott Hoffman, one of the "Chicago 7".

The June 2, 1970, issue of "The East Village Other", a weekly hippie type newspaper published in New York City, contained an article entitled "Abbie and Anita Rap with Grace and Paul" which stated in part that Grace Slick was a lead singer with the Jefferson Airplane, a nationally known rock and roll group. USA

The article, dealing with the impact of rock and roll on the cultural scene and its connections with the revolutionary youth movement in the United States, quoted Slick as stating, "I prefer not to kill people, but I'd like to destroy as much property as possible". b7D

Finch College, 52 East 7th Street, New York City, advised May 20, 1970, that Grace Slick attended Finch College under the name Grace Barnett Wing from September, 1957, to June, 1958. b1, b7D

A second source advised August 11, 1970, that Grace Barnett Wing was born October 30, 1939, at Highland Park, Illinois. She stated Wing attended Castilleja School, Palo Alto, California, from 1955 to 1957 prior to attending Finch College.

While attending Castilleja, Wing was an impulsive, thoughtless, rather wild, irresponsible young lady and was subjected to disciplinary action during her senior year because of her escapades. There was no evidence of any interest in politics or social issues when she was at Castilleja and was very self-centered and concerned only with herself. She was inclined to make a spectacle of herself. Wing's parents were very conservative and somewhat disenchanted with their daughter.

March 2

Mr. Dick Cavett
C/O ABC-TV
The Dick Cavett Show
New York, New York

My Dear Mr. Cavett:

O Miscellaneous

Last evening, March 26 during the course of your show, I and millions of other Americans found ourselves face to face with a group of "entertainers" obviously invited as guests to appear on your show.

This group (~~The Jefferson Airplane~~) used many precious minutes of network time chanting endless phrases of "revolution in the streets." To add insult to injury, they screamingly identified themselves as "volunteers for America!"

Judging from the variety of guests and topics discussed on earlier shows, Mr. Cavett, I am sure you are well aware of the growing anarchy among certain groups here in the U. S. A. Have you considered the contribution that you, your producer, and network make by encouraging or even allowing this thoroughly disgusting and anti-American type of performance. Need I remind you that the American way is not anarchy and revolution in the streets.

It's paradoxical that a national network would encourage this low level presentation to be aired in network prime time when at the same time, others of our young men are giving their very lives to protect one of the most successful forms of government in the history of man. Certainly these young people are entitled to freedom of speech and expression, but must you seek the very lowest level of programming material to complete your show?

I much prefer receiving compliments and giving compliments to this, but I find this network demonstration so thoroughly "fantastic" in an anti-American way, that I can only react with unbelieving astonishment.

Perhaps I'm just another prejudiced member of the silent majority and you can discard this letter without a second thought----I can confer part of my "bias" probably comes from the fact that I have four small children whose future is very important to me.

Very sincerely,
